

AND OUR FIRST CLEAN SHEET THERE SINCE 1919!

It's something new when the visitors prevent Liverpool scoring, and for the first time this season the Kop did not have a goal to cheer. We reckon we worked hard for our point, and we use our match pictures from Anfield to reply to some of Bill's remarks. But whatever you do Bill, please don't stop talking about football . . . even if we don't always agree with you!

Bill Shankly said: "Chelsea didn't seem to want to win at all". But Lloyd and Clemence aren't taking Baldwin's challenge lightly. Lloyd clears the ball out of the Liverpool goalmouth.

Bill Shankly said: "Chelsea played like Continentals, slowing it down to the pace they wanted". Peter Houseman is exactly the opposite to a go-slow figure here as he hurtles three feet off the ground in search of a goal-chance.
