

KNOCKED OUT SPURS IN ROUND 3

Murray, with a perfect header from Tambling's cross, clinches it . . .

. . . and is mobbed by jubilant team-mates. It's the first time we've ever put Spurs out of the Cup and Eddie McCreadie tops the "pile" of delighted Chelsea players.