

Our first defeat in 17 games comes in the last six minutes at Derby

Left: Steve Sherwood ten feet tall to cut out a corner under strong challenge from Hector. How high? Well, for a start our young goalkeeper stands 6ft. 3 1/2 in.; he has jumped about three feet off the ground, and his arms are at full stretch above his head. That adds up to 10 ft. plus—and Ron Harris, David Webb and John Dempsey need have no worries.

Below: A touch of Derby's floodlighting has got into the lens at the moment Steve Kember pushes the ball past Boulton... and also narrowly wide of the post.
