Just hanging around . . . goalkeeper Maurice Swan swings on the miniature goal-frame while Hull's hard-shooting forwards give him a break in training.

Secretary John Adamson, busy man behind the scenes.

Loyal club men don't come any better than Andy Davidson. At home with his wife Susan and daughters Angela (5) and Julie (2) he points in the scrap-book to a picture taken the day he joined the club 19 years ago.

Boothferry Park Station: Out of the train and into the ground. It's as simple as that.
