

AN IMPORTANT REFERENCE TO OUR LAST HOME MATCH

THIS photograph was taken at our last home match against Manchester United, which began 12 minutes late because the surrounding track had to be cleared of young spectators. Bearing in mind all the warnings that had previously been given, it was decided immediately afterwards to withdraw the concession of half-price admission for children.

Later, at a conference held with senior Police officials, it was confirmed that Police Officers did, in fact, lift young boys on to the greyhound track for their safety. Other youths — not regular supporters — took advantage of the situation to invade the arena and so caused the kick-off to be delayed.

In view of the circumstances, we have decided to re-instate half-price admission for children. We would stress, however, that we cannot permit invasion of the playing arena at any time. Also, we consider that very young children unaccompanied by adults should not attend matches at which large crowds can be expected.
