

JUST GREAT

I HAVE followed Chelsea for 15 years and I would like to say that all Chelsea supporters I have spoken to in the Chessington and Surbiton area think the new Chelsea colours are just GREAT!

RETROGRADE

I AM all for improvements (and incidentally I think "In Off The Post" is one) but I must endorse Mr. Post's view on the change to blue shorts.

Apart from the aesthetic point of view, I feel it is a retrograde step, the folly of which will become apparent when visibility is poor and white stockings are the only things to show up!

MOD. TAILORING

SURELY everyone must approve of Chelsea's new strip. It is a most modern outfit for a most modern team.

Keep up the good tailoring.

SCOREBOARD WANTED

I HAVE been a Chelsea supporter for many years, and I welcome the change in the playing strip.

There is no smarter looking team in the League at present, and I am pleased to see Chelsea setting a trend which will surely be followed by other clubs.

I would like to see the introduction of a scoreboard at Chelsea. This, I think, might add a little more football atmosphere.

Editor's note: A scoreboard of the kind mentioned would go well with the new Stand when it is built. It will certainly be considered.

"NO CHANCE"

WHEN Arsenal play at Stamford Bridge this season, would you remind the ball-boys to put the ball in play as soon as possible. I can tolerate players wasting time, but ball-boys never.

As Chelsea have no chance of the Championship, please do not hinder other team's chances by bad sportsmanship.

Editor's note: Arsenal supporter, indeed—as if we didn't know!

CAN YOU BEAT THIS?

THE Sunderland match was my 512th at Stamford Bridge—I see only first-class matches (no reserve games). Many patrons (I abhor "fans") are of longer standing, doubtless, than I; but none, I'll wager, more meticulous.

I have the programme of every match I see marked with scorers, captains and team changes, if any. Therefore my records are incontestable documents relating to such games.

I have seen every Rugby League and F.A. Cup Final, and International, at Wembley, from May 1933, also games on every first-class ground in England and Wales (92 Football League and 30 Rugby League).

My hobby is not football. It is investigating the occult, especially poltergeists. The fact that I've visited every ground is consequent only upon my ghostly searchings up and down the country.
