VIEW OBSTRUCTED

AFTER losing my favourite view from the terrace, with the building of the new Stand, I tried for the first time a place in the enclosure in front of the East Stand, only to find the view obstructed by tote indicator boards wired to the supports. Could not these be removed for matches?

REFEREES WANTED

May I, on behalf of our Chairman and Council, express our thanks and appreciation to Chelsea F.C. for the publicity given to our Society with reference to the recruitment of Referees, published in your programme last season.

As a result at least six candidates are now under instruction (incidentally, a couple of whom will only referee in Affiliated Sunday games and alternate Saturdays as they do not wish to miss supporting Chelsea when at home).

If I am not being too presumptuous perhaps you could find another spot in one of your programmes to mention that our search for Referees goes on.

W. D. Goodsell.

Hon. General Secretary.

FROM BERT MURRAY'S FAN MAIL

Mr. Bert Murray,
Chelsea Club,
London, England.
Dear Sir,

Good day, you should not be surprised to have received a letter from me. I got to do this through your magnificent performances which brought you to No. 12 in your great Club. Your name has been widely published in today's daily paper throughout the World. Go ahead and May God bless you, give you energy and wisdom.

Sir, this is my trouble and it is personal obligation. I shall be very much grateful if you could be sending me three naps draws every week. I am prepared to pay for the cost and the postage every week or pay for three months trial at least. I promise to send the amount in British Postal Order, and I would like the Draws to reach me before every Friday of a week.

Please consider and beg to remain.

Yours sincerely,

D. O. Ekatah.

● Since the season's opening day, of course, Bert has jumped from No. 12 (substitute) back to No. 7 in our "chart," though not on his ability to select "three naps draws" every week. Sorry, Mr. Ekatah — regulations do not permit players or club officials to forecast match results in this way.
