

FRONT COVER SHOT

THE challenge to do well is always special against your old club—as in the case of David Webb and Joe Kirkup in today's match—and is reflected in Tommy Baldwin's determined effort to get through the Arsenal defence here last Saturday.

HOOIGANS WARNED

From Tuesday's Daily Express:

Soccer hooligans who lose their heads will also lose their liberty, a woman magistrate warned yesterday.

Eight youths appeared at West London Court after incidents during and after the Chelsea-Arsenal game.

Mrs. Nina Lowry jailed one, sent another to a detention centre and fined the others a total of £270.

Peter Kennedy, a 21-year-old gas fitter of Sherwood Road, South Harrow, was sentenced to two months for assault.

John Williams, an 18-year-old van boy, of Montague Court, Holloway, was sent to a detention centre for three months for using threatening behaviour.

Paul Fyfe, an 18-year-old analyst, of Brighton View, Paddock Road, Basingstoke, Hants., was fined £100 for having an offensive weapon.

Be their guest: Disc-jockeys Pete Owen and Dave Scott would like to entertain two supporters at a future home game and have devised a competition to decide who they are. All you have to do is send in (post-cards ONLY, please) your forecast of the result of the Chelsea v. Leeds match on December 11. The lucky two will be drawn from all those who submit correct forecasts, and winners will be announced in the programme v. Ipswich on December 27. There will also be 25 runners-up prizes—a copy for each of the "Chelsea record" LIQUIDATOR by Harry J. and the All-Stars. Send your postcards now, addressed to: Pete & Dave, Chelsea F.C., Stamford Bridge Grounds, Fulham Road, London, S.W.6.
