

SPECIAL PRIVILEGE CUP TICKETS

I WOULD like to thank you and your staff for the kindness shown to us sellers for Friends of Sport in the recent Cup-tie against Spurs.

It was a great pleasure to get our tickets for that game without having to queue for them.

Once again I thank you all for the service.

● Sellers from Chelsea of Friends of Sport tickets receive an allocation of Cup tickets — and there are still some vacancies. If you are interested write to: Tom Beattie-Edwards, Friends of Sport, 402 Fulham Road, S.W.6, or telephone Fulham 6591.

'GREEN-EYED FANATIC'

HAVING studied Mr. Semmens' letter (Feb. 6), I found myself agreeing with some of his points regarding League attendances at "The Bridge".

But when he refers to the present Chelsea set-up as being a team who play "successful football in an unattractive and unscientific manner", I am afraid I must stamp him as being "a Tottenham fanatic with a green eye".

You must have had to hold Tommy down when he read that letter!

HOSPITAL CHEER

I HAVE been a Chelsea supporter for approximately nine years and was eagerly waiting to see the Blues play Spurs in the recent F.A. Cup-tie, but ill-health intervened and landed me in hospital.

Thus, although I could not see the match, the result came over my wireless set, and cheered me up considerably.

So, thank-you for the joy which Chelsea were able to give me on that bleak Saturday afternoon.

RECORD BY GEORGE GRAHAM

HAS there ever been any other player signed from a First Division club (when playing for their reserves) who, in a matter of weeks with his new team, played First Division football and also after three months was honoured with an Under-23 Scotland international cap, like George Graham?

● We cannot recall a similar instance, by George!

NO GOALS = NO POINTS

I HAVE noticed that "The Blues" have not scored in any of the five League games they have lost this season — at home to Manchester United, Burnley, West Ham, Nottingham Forest, and away to Sunderland.

B. Revell.

● Correct. And on the basis that we don't lose once we score, here's hoping for an early goal in this match . . . preferably with more to follow.

CLUB MOTTO

COULD you please tell me if Chelsea have a club motto. I am a keen supporter, but have never heard of one.

John McKinney.

● There is no Chelsea F.C. motto.

SUPPORTER FROM CHESHIRE

I AM 18 and travel 200 miles to watch Chelsea play at home. Of course, most of the away matches are not as far as that.

Most of my mates support Manchester United, Wolves, etc., and they've all had a lot of laughs at me.

But now I am laughing back, thanks to Tommy Docherty and the whole Chelsea team.
