COMPLAINT JUSTIFIED

I AM a regular supporter of your Club, and I am writing to lodge a complaint of the treatment we Supporters have to put up with from peanut-sellers. When standing on the terraces we are constantly jostled by a stream of vendors.

How many people are of the same opinion as myself, wondering if it is the Zoological Gardens or Stamford Bridge? There must be a lot of monkeys on your terraces.

Please try to limit the number of these sellers or I, and several other friends, will in future support another club.

J. F. Wright.

London, W.10.

● Peanut vendors are not authorised by this Club and we do our best to prevent their entry. Some do pay at the turnstiles and get through, and any assistance Supporters can give to the Police or Stewards in pointing them out would be most appreciated.

ACTION IN PICTURES

THE programme that Chelsea produces is one of the best programmes in the First Division. Its photographs are fabulous. Also the information it holds is very useful.

Why not put a few more action shots in? Then, I think you'll agree that Chelsea will be THE best club in the First Division.

R. Keane.

● We already agree on that! Don't you supporters get enough action on the field?

BRING BACK "LION" BADGE

I APPROVE of the new Chelsea all-blue strip, but I do have one complaint about it.

The "C.F.C." badge on the shirt is neither as elegant nor as eye-catching as the old badge of the "lion rampant". Could not the old badge be kept on the new strip?

WELL, FOR EVERMORE!

CERTAINLY, we must have a Club Song, and the melody must be well-known so as to catch on quickly.

Mr. R. J. Otter's suggestion of the tune of "Daisy, Daisy" (which everyone knows) will do fine with the following words:—

Chelsea, Chelsea, give us a goal or two,
Play up, Chelsea, we're with you
through and through,
A goal from a Chelsea volley,
Will make us all so jolly,
And when you score, you'll hear us
roar—Chelsea for Evermore.

Can you imagine thousands of Chelsea fans singing this famous tune to our words, and how it would inspire our team to greater effort!

But it must be sung with tremendous gusto, like the Geordies sing "Blaydon Races", and then our team will know they really have got some supporters.

R. Littlejohn.
