THE TALK OF STAMFORD BRIDGE

IMPORTANT NOTICE: We have been asked by the police to bring to the attention of spectators—particularly those at the Fulham Road End—the fact that complaints have been received about the obscene nature of some of the chants that have been heard from the terraces at home matches this season. We take a serious view of such complaints, and appeal to those responsible to cease this behaviour before further action becomes necessary.

Welcome back: This visit of Sunderland marks the return to Stamford Bridge of our former player-coach John Mortimore. It is a year ago today that John left us — after ten seasons' service — for Queen's Park Rangers, and in March he joined Sunderland as coach. Nice to see you again, John.

League Cup: Our next first-team fixture is at home to Charlton Athletic in the second round of the Football League Cup on Wednesday next (7.30 p.m.). Because of our European commitments, we did not participate in the competition last year but, with this season's winners assured of a place in the Inter-Cities Fairs Cup in 1967-68, we are particularly eager to repeat our League Cup triumph of 1965. Normal prices will be charged on Wednesday, with reserved seats bookable in advance at 10/- and 15/-. Season-ticket holders are reminded that their usual tickets do not apply to League Cup matches. Tickets are available at the Box Office after today's match.

Warning repeated: For the benefit of those who missed Wednesday night's match, we mention again the warning given in the programme then to youngsters who ran on the pitch at the end of the previous home game. Because of such conduct last season, the half-price concession was near to being withdrawn to all boys, and if there is any further misconduct
