

Above: What a beauty! Charlie Cooke's shot flashes past Arsenal goalkeeper Barnett and gives us the lead at Highbury last Saturday. It was Charlie's second goal of the new season, so already he has equalled his First Division total of last winter. Seems as if he meant it when he said before the first ball of 1972-73 was kicked: "I'm going to have a helluva season ... you see!"

Right: Chris Garland beats the Arsenal 'keeper to Charlie Cooke's cross, but his header is wide.
