Your letters should be of not more than 150 words and addressed to "In off the Post", Chelsea F.C., Fulham Road, London, S.W.6.

LETTERS OPENED BY PROGRAMME EDITOR, ALBERT SEWELL

GREETINGS FROM ZAMBIA

BEST wishes to you and all the luck this season for both the League Championship and the Cup Final, from the citizens of Zambia.

Roy Matson.

Box 3,
Fort Rosebery, Zambia.

● Dr. Kenneth Kaunda, President of Zambia, was a distinguished guest when we played Everton here last month.

REQUEST FROM PRAGUE

I RECENTLY received a letter from a footballer in Czechoslovakia, asking me to send him a Chelsea badge. He added . . . "and write me your wish (a badge or souvenir from Prague) — be so kind".

Of course, I sent M. Fridrich a large rosette and a Christmas card. Football is international, and I shall soon feel like a shareholder as well as a season-ticket holder.

H. H. Hayward.

Staines, Middlesex.

MEMORY OF GEORGE

IN a recent programme, Mr. K. Moncur mentioned in his letter about the Chelsea man on the weather-vane not being issued with the new strip.

Why not keep him in the old club colours, in memory of George Hilsdon?

Kenneth Freeman.

Morden, Surrey.

TOP OF THE COPS

I WOULD like to thank your St. John's Ambulance men for the attention I received at the Chelsea v. Everton match on 14th November — attention which, I might add, I needed after your convincing 5-1 win.

I would also like to say you have the friendliest policemen I have ever met outside of Liverpool.

(Miss) Jaqueline Roberts.

THIS IS THE "END"

HAVE you noticed Chelsea's dismal record for every last match of the month this season:—

F. A.

Aug. 31st, away, drew 2-2 v. A. Villa
Sept. 30th, home, lost 0-2 v. Man. Utd.
Oct. 31st, home, lost 0-1 v. Burnley
Nov. 28th, home, lost 0-3 v. West Ham

Total 2-8

The home defeats were the only losses of the season in the league thus far, and the away match was drawn after Chelsea were 2-0 up with only minutes to go.

W. Sullivan and F. Connor.
