

One goal settles our third round tie, after Blackpool we now meet Bolton

Today . . . Bolton. In the last round of the F.A. Cup it was another Lancashire club who provided the opposition, and in the picture above from the tie at Blackpool you see John Hollins, by the post, blocking Dyson's shot. For a few moments the situation remained tense as the ball went loose in our goalmouth . . .

. . . But it ended in the safe hands of Peter Bonetti (left). Skipper Ron Harris guards the near post with an expression that says "everything's under control." And it was.
