

MATCH SUMMARIES RESULTS TEAMS SCORERS

FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Saturday, 11th November.
Drew with LEICESTER CITY (Home) 1-1. Half-time: 0-0.

Chelsea: Sherwood; Locke, McCreadie, Hollins, Webb, Harris, Garland, Kember, Osgood, Garner, Houseman. Substitute (did not play): Baldwin.

Scorer: Garner.

Leicester: Shilton; Woollett, Rofe, Sammels, Sjoberg, Cross, Farrington, Birchenall, Weller, Worthington, Glover.

Scorer: Sammels.

Referee: Mr. J. K. Taylor (Wolverhampton).

Attendance: 28,456.

Another important home point was dropped (on one of those rare days when leaders Liverpool lost), largely through failure to take early chances. Ten mins. into second half Glover chipped the ball from which Sammels headed Leicester in front, but within three mins. Garner levelled with a powerful header from Garland's cross from right. Rofe was booked for a foul on Garland.

Saturday, 18th November.

Lost to SOUTHAMPTON (Away) 1-3. Half-time: 1-1.

Southampton: Martin; McCarthy, Kirkup, Fisher, Bennett, Steele, Paine, Channon, Davies, O'Neil, Stokes.

Scorers: O'Neil, Davies (2).

Chelsea: Sherwood; Locke, McCreadie, Hollins, Webb, Harris, Garner, Kember, Osgood, Hudson, Houseman. Substitute (did not play): Droy.

Scorer: Osgood.

Referee: Mr. K. W. Baker (Rugby).

Attendance: 24,164.

The most frustrating result accompanied our most dominating display of the season, with Southampton surviving—except Osgood's ninth-minute goal—miraculously and at times absurdly. Three mins. before half-time O'Neil chanced a 30-yarder and equalised. The second half was almost as comprehensively ours, but Davies got the goals—two in the last six mins.

WEST STAND, WAKE UP!

WE are regular West Stand spectators, and we would like to ask everyone in this Stand to give Chelsea a little more vocal support.

The Shed do their best and we realise that the ground has lost some of its atmosphere through the East Stand being knocked down, but let's all try like The Shed do and really let the boys hear us.
