The Talk of Stamford Bridge

A WELL-EARNED point came at Southampton on Tuesday night after the disappointment of the first 22 minutes at Tottenham last Saturday, when we conceded three goals on what was decidedly "one of those days". Spurs certainly showed how to take chances and, with Peter Osgood going off injured soon afterwards, there was never much prospect of our survival. The only consolation was that the "goals against" were pegged in the second half. Good to see Tommy Baldwin back on the scoresheet at Southampton, where we twice came from behind in the closing stages.

Four to go: After three consecutive away fixtures-Wolves, Tottenham and Southampton—we complete the season's list of first-team home matches with two games in three days. This afternoon we welcome Newcastle United, hoping to improve on the 0-0 draw we played at St. James's Park in December, and on Monday night we meet Stoke City here in the League match that was postponed on March 4 because of our League Cup Final date with Stoke at Wembley that day. The two First Division fixtures then remaining will both be away. Please note that our visit to West Bromwich, originally dated for the coming Wednesday, has been switched to Thursday night instead. Our final match, away to Leeds United, has been postponed from next Saturday because of the England v. West Germany game at Wembley, and at the time of writing we are waiting for the Football League to decide the re-arranged date. Leeds, of course, play in the F.A. Cup Final on May 6, so our last fixture of the season could decide the League Championship . . . or even the Double!

Progress report: Eddie McCreadie, who suffered a double fracture of the cheekbone when playing in the Reserves at Bristol Rovers at the end of February, made his comeback last Saturday morning in the Combination match drawn 2-2 at home to Spurs. Peter Houseman resumed full training on Monday following a groin injury received in the previous week's Reserve game at Ipswich. Defender Derek Vaughan is going into hospital with a suspected slipped disc and may need an operation. News of two other Chelsea casualties, Peter Osgood and Ian Hutchinson, accompanies pictures elsewhere in today's programme.

FRONT COVER SHOT

CHRIS GARLAND battles it out with Ralph Coates at Tottenham last Saturday. And in response to a correspondent who asked whether Chris is naturally left-footed or right, the answer, says the player himself, is "right" . . . even though he did score with a spectacular left-footer the previous time we were at White Hart Lane in the League Cup semi-final in January.

Barbados tour: We are due to leave on Monday, May 15, for a two-week visit to Barbados. Three matches will be played, all against the Barbados National side—on Thursday, May 18, Saturday, May 20 and Tuesday, May 23. We return home on May 30.

End of a run: The sequence of five successive League wins that ended at Tottenham last Saturday was our best for three years. The last time we had won five First Division games in a row was in February—March 1969. That run also ended at . . . White Hart Lane.

IMPORTANT NOTE TO SEASON-TICKET HOLDERS

WITHIN the next two weeks details will be announced regarding arrangements for Season-ticket holders next season.

Please do not write to the Club meanwhile, as all Season-ticket holders will be notified by post of arrangements for 1972-73.

But if you have not received notification by May 13, please communicate with the Ticket Office immediately.

U.E.F.A. CUP CHANCES

I HAVE been trying to calculate Chelsea's chances of qualifying for the U.E.F.A. Cup next season. Are the answers to the following questions known?

1. If Stoke win the F.A. Cup would Chelsea be entitled to their place in the U.E.F.A. Cup (in the past losing F.A. Cup Finalists have been placed in the Cup-Winners' Cup, when the F.A. Cup winners are qualified for the European Cup)?

If Spurs or Wolves win the U.E.F.A.Cup would England be entitled to four or five representatives?

3. If Spurs won the U.E.F.A. Cup and qualified for next season's competition as holders would this de-bar Chelsea from qualifying on League position under the one-City-one-team rule?

P. H. S. Hatton.

Westfield College, (University of London), Hampstead, N.W.3 7ST

As we understand the position, England is entitled to a maximum of four entries in the U.E.F.A. Cup (including the League Cup Winners unless they qualify for either of the other European tournaments). Also, we MUST finish top London Club to retain our hopes of qualifying . . . but at the time of writing it is still not clear whether the winners of the U.E.F.A. Cup will, in future, automatically qualify for entry the following season. Point 1 above does not arise, of course, following Stoke's F.A. Cup semi-final defeat on Wednesday.

FINDING THEM YOUNG!

THERE cannot be a Chelsea supporter much younger than my nephew, David. He was already wrapped in Chelsea blue when he was just ten days old, and he attended his first match (East Stand G, row F, seat 3) against West Ham at the grand old age of nine weeks. He wore a blue and white bobble-hat, 12-inch scarf and tiny football boots.

However, his connection with Chelsea started even earlier. While still in the operating theatre, after being told she'd had a boy, my sister announced to astonished nurses and doctor: "He's going to play for Chelsea!" How's that . . . a Chelsea recruit just minutes old?

Still, it had to happen—the house already contains a cat named Chelsea and a tortoise called Baldwin.

And when Master David Shilton comes to another match at The Bridge before the end of the season, let's hope David Webb can oblige with a hat-trick!

E. A. Kingston (Mr.).

GOAL POWER

WITH reflection on Chelsea "scoring power" this season without Ian Hutchinson, I feel they must go out and buy a striking forward.

It seems to me that if Peter Osgood doesn't find the net and Chelsea do score, it is nearly always someone coming from the back who does, i.e. Hollins, Webb.

If we want to be consistently successful this situation cannot continue. We must have more than one forward getting double figures.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED

THE Chelsea Friends of the Imperial Cancer Research Fund are organizing a Concert at the Chelsea Old Town Hall, King's Road, S.W.3 on May 17th, when Mr. Ian Wallace, the radio and TV personality, has generously donated his services for an evening of song. A free glass of wine will be served in the interval and the evening promises to be great fun.

My Committee wonders whether you could mention our function in your publication. We may then be able to sell tickets (£2 Stalls, £1 Gallery) to your supporters.

I need hardly tell you how desperately money is needed to fight cancer, and may I also bring it to attention that a house-to-house collection will take place from June 7-13 as part of our National Appeal 1972.

Gloria Stacey.

(Chairman, Concert Committee). Imperial Cancer Research Fund.

FROM "OUR MAN" IN BRAZIL

I AM an ardent Chelsea supporter who has been living in Brazil for seven months. I've managed to follow the Blues this season through friends sending me out the results, and I was very disappointed at Chelsea losing all three Cups, but there is always next season.

I have been to see all the top Brazilian stars, including Pele, Rivelino and Jairzinho. The Maracana, with crowds of 100-150,000, and a samba band playing constantly throughout the game, is much noisier than The Bridge, but the atmosphere is lost in such a large ground.

I have spoken a lot about Chelsea to my friends out here, and I am sure the Blues would be very welcome if they ever visited on a tour.

Jeff Warren.

CHEERS FROM "CHIP"

In response to your recent interest shown in pets with a "party piece" connected with Chelsea, my pet budgie "Chip", a true blue, has consistently been squawking for the past five years "Chelsea for the Cup".

His persistent outbursts are a sore point this season but, having spurred the team on to two tremendous cup wins in his time (in his own little way), he hasn't done too badly.

It is a great pity that he can't be present on match days at Stamford Bridge as I am sure he would make a valuable contribution, in the way of vocal support!

B. W. Junemann.

Above: Chris
Garland shoots
what proved to be our winner
against Crystal Palace in the last home game a fortnight ago.

TWO MORE POINTS OFF PALAGE

Right: And here's John Hollins, almost under the bar, scoring the opening goal against Palace right on half-time—his 18th of the season.

Above: Four days later, away to Wolves, we completed another double—helped by Chris Garland's goal after 50 seconds and this combined clearance by Ron Harris and Paddy Mulligan.

AND THEN A DOUBLE OVER WOLVES

Left: Peter Osgood takes a deserved bow ten minutes after half-time at Molineux. He's just made certain of victory with our second goal.

A BLOW FOR OSSIE . . . BUT IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN WORSE

We're three down in 22 minutes at Tottenham last Saturday, and a few minutes later things get worse as Peter Osgood is carried off with an injured left leg. But by Monday the news was brighter. The diagnosis was strained knee ligaments, not cartilage trouble, and Trainer Harry Medhurst was able to add the optimistic note: "He could play again before the season ends."

So there's hope that, before the curtain finally comes down on 1971-72 we shall see Ossie back in this sort of action, and that this won't prove his last shot of the season . . . one that produced a tremendous save by Spurs 'keeper Pat Jennings instead of the goal it deserved.

OUT OF THE FAT

AR Alec Cross, of Ranworth Close, 1 Erith, is a keen Chelsea supporter. So keen in fact that he will not miss one of their matches-home or away.

After returning home from work, Mr. Cross was grilling a steak and frying chips, when his mind must have wandered from matters gastronomic to matters foothall. Without realising what he was doing be plunged one of his hands into the boiling fat.

Mr. Cross dashed off to hospital and soon after treatment was on the train for London and the Chelsea-Tottenham match.

When I saw him he had just returned from having his fingers dressed in hospital. But nothing could stop him talking about the wonders of Chelsea.

Mr. Cross is branch secretary of the Waterways Section of the Transport and General workers Union.

THE CHELSEA POOL does not close when we get to the end of the season's League football. We NEVER close! Our Pool goes on right through the summer to the start of next season, and from May 6 it will be based on Australian football.

And, as last summer showed, those high-scoring games in Australia mean MORE BIG SINGLE WINNERS in all sections of our Pool compared even with our own season.

So STAY IN THE CHELSEA POOL throughout the summer, and give yourself the continued chance of a big prize every week.

A lot of Chelsea Pool Members are going to have their summer holidays paid for by those Australian results . . . and YOU could be among them.

Call at the Pools Office (over the Club Offices) for full details about how to become a Member, or ring our Pools Organiser Geoff Abel and his staff on 385-3255.

FOCUS on our VISITORS

OVER the past year few clubs have made bigger changes in playing personnel than Newcastle United. The "revolution" began last May, when they paid their record fee of £185,000 to Luton Town to add the goal-power of Malcolm Macdonald to their ranks. Macdonald, one-time full-back with Fulham, has already proved the most exciting sharpshooter—especially left-foot—seen on Tyneside since Jackie Milburn.

He succeeded Wyn Davies, who moved to Manchester City for the start of the season, and by November there had been a whole string of departures from St. James's Park: Alan Foggon to Cardiff, John Craggs to Middlesbrough, Ben Arentoft and John McNamee to Blackburn, Gordon Hindson to Luton, Keith Dyson to Blackpool and Ian Mitchell to Dundee United.

There have been newcomers apart from Macdonald to the famous black-and-white stripes this season. Winger Terry Hibbitt was bought from Leeds last August. A month later Newcastle signed Barnsley centre-half Pat Howard, and in October they paid Blackpool £150,000 for Tony Green to open defences for Macdonald's powerful finishing. Another new forward arrival was Alex Reid from Dundee United.

TALK-BACK

Back in the team and back among the goals, today's subject in our series of Chelsea player interviews is

TOMMY BALDWIN

Family details:	My wife's name is Pauline and we have a lovely daughter, Lucy, aged eight months. We live at Wallington, Surrey.
This season's experiences:	I was going quite well, with 14 goals in 20 games—including a couple of hat-tricks—by the middle of November. Then I injured a hamstring at Crystal Palace. That took weeks to mend, and just as I was getting over it I did my Achilles tendon. I didn't get in the side again until I went on as substitute in the League Cup Final. I wasn't match-fit, but feel sharper after a run of Reserve games and it was great to be scoring First Division goals at Southampton on Tuesday.
Most memorable Chelsea games:	In six seasons since I came here from Arsenal I've won three medals in the F.A. Cup Finals of 1967 and 1970 and last year in the Cup-Winners' Cup. Those games all stand out. So does something else: We were the outsiders when we beat Leeds and Real Madrid to take those Cups, but hot favourites when Stoke beat us at Wembley in March. I hope we're outsiders again next time we're in a Final—there's not quite the same pressure on you to win.
Best pal at Stamford Bridge:	Charlie Cooke. We're regular room-mates when we go away for matches.
My Championship and F.A. Cup tips:	I can't see beyond Leeds. They're a helluva side. I reckon they're a fair bet to do the Double unless we can stop them. What a game that'll be if we go there for the last game with them needing to win for the Championship and maybe the Double. Don't forget we upset their apple-cart in the F.A. Cup Final two years ago!
Most admired opponent:	Peter Simpson, of Arsenal. He was beginning to show in my time at Highbury and has become one of the best defenders in the business. In my view he's under-rated and still doesn't get the praise he deserves.
Best country visited:	Barbados, on Chelsea's summer tour two years ago. We'd just won the F.A. Cup and that made it all the merrier. I love a hot climate—for lying in the sun, not for playing football in. I'm looking forward to going back there in a few weeks.
Chelsea star of tomorrow:	Playing in the Combination side lately, I've been able to weigh up the young players we've got coming through. There are quite a few who can make top grade, but if I have to pick one I'll go for Gary Stanley. He's just 18—our former player Frank Upton sent him down from Derbyshire Schools football two years ago—and I was very impressed when he played up front with me in the Reserves at Ipswich two weeks ago. Gary got both our goals—he also plays well in midfield—and I shan't be at all surprised if he's really pushing next season.

After Jennings made fine saves from Osgood's shot and header, Coates scored the second (17 minutes) with a power-drive which Bonetti parried but could not keep out. Chivers shot the third (22 minutes), and a minute later Osgood suffered strained ligaments of the left knee and was taken off on a stretcher.

Two Cup Finals: On Thursday of last week our Juniors avenged their recent F.A. Youth Cup defeat against Aston Villa by beating Villa here in the semi-final of the Southern Junior Floodlit Cup. Gary Stanley scored the only goal, and we meet Coventry City in the Final—first leg here on Monday, May 1 (7.30 p.m.) and the return game at Coventry on Friday, May 5. Chelsea Juniors are in another Final—the London Youth Cup-away to Crystal Palace (single leg) this coming Monday.

New signing: Teddy Maybank, 15-yearold inside-forward from Brixton, who left school at Easter, has been signed as an apprentice. He joined us originally on Associated Schoolboy forms.

Hutch says 'Roll on Season 1972-73'

You can go places fast in a car like this, even with one foot in plaster, but one thing Ian Hutchinson can't get to soon enough in his new yellow Lotus Elan is the start of next season. "It can't come quickly enough," says Ian, desperate to get back in action after missing the later stages of last season because of a cartilage operation and all this season with a broken leg. But his plaster came off this week, and after a further three-months' rest Hutch will report back in July two weeks before the rest of our players. Then, by the time they make a start, he should be ready to join them in full training.
